INDEX FOR DECEMBER

December 1 (Thursday)
U.S. Trade Deficit in Oct. Hits Record $8.97 Billion (p. 1)
U.S., Israel Agree to Strengthen Ties (p. 1)
Zhao May Cancel U.S. Visit Over 'Two Chinas' (p. 1)
Soviet-Bound Computer Halted by U.S. in Helsinki (p. 1)
FBI Director Warns That Yakuza May Become Uncontrollable in U.S. (p. 2)
Computer Failure Threatens 4 Tests (p. 3)
U.S. Destroys Target Plane With Laser Beam (p. 4)
EC Ministers Decide to Double Tariff on DAD Players in '84 (p. 6)
Editorials: China's Open-Door Policy
U.S. High-Tech to China

Dec. 2 (Friday)
Spacelab Light Ray Thrills Japanese Research Workers (p. 13)
Gemayel Confirms Support For Israeli Pullout Accord (p. 13)
Supreme Court Upholds Ruling on 1981 Voting Irregularities (p. 14)
Murderer Sullivan Executed in Florida's Electric Chair (p. 15)
Witness Tells Inquiry He Believes Galman Was Not Aquino's Killer (p. 16)
Picket Line Clashes Leave 40 Hurt As Printers Defy Thatcher Curbs (p. 17)
Japan, U.S. to Hold Civil Aviation Meet (p. 22)
Editorials: The Mutsu: A White Elephant
Black Hole Discovery

Dec. 3 (Saturday)
Hussein Willing to Resume Talks With PLO's Arafat (p. 29)
Official Campaigning for Dec. 18 Election Gets Under Way Today (p. 29)
Top Court Confirms Conviction of Korean Who Contested Law (p. 30)
Human-Ape Link May Be in New Fossils (p. 31)
Japan, ASEAN Wind Up First Ministerial Meet (p. 32)
FTC Staff Recommends Agency Approval for Toyota-GM Plans (p. 34)
Editorial: Rental Business: End of an Era?

Dec. 4 (Sunday)
Leaders of All Political Parties Launch Campaigns With Speeches (p. 43)
U.S. Won't Retreat on Taiwan to Improve China Ties: Reagan (p. 43)
Gov't Drafts Report About New Communications Era (p. 44)
Astronauts Successfully Mix Aluminum, Zinc in Spacelab (p. 45)
Arafat Requests U.N. to Place Flag on PLO Evacuation Ships (p. 46)
Uganda's Top General Dies in Helicopter Crash (p. 46)
Editorials: The 'Information Trade'
Boom in Japanese Foods

Dec. 5 (Monday)
Syria Claims to Have Shot Down Three U.S. Jets, Captured Pilot (p. 55)
PLO Pullout Ships Will Fly U.N. Flag (p. 55)
ROK Nabs N. Korean Agents Near Pusan Port (p. 55)
Bar Undecided Whether to Allow U.S. Lawyers to Work in Japan (p. 56)
Astronomers Discover Celestial Body (p. 56)
U.K. Disarmers Vow to Step Up Protests (p. 57)
Rep. Zablocki, Sponsor of War Powers Act, Dies (p. 58)
Japan's Seko Triumphant in Fukuoka Int'l Marathon (p. 63)
Editorial: U.S.-Israeli Pact Alarms Arabs

Dec. 6 (Tuesday)
Kremlin Chiefs Say Soviet Return to Euromissile Dialogue Unlikely (p. 69)
Arafat to Leave Lebanon For Algeria, Then Jordan (p. 69)
Ban Violent Problem Pupils, Education Boards Are Told (p. 70)
Nicaragua Announces Amnesty For Citizens Who Fled Country (p. 71)
Venezuelans Vote in Presidential Poll (p. 71)
Support for LDP Dips Below 50%: Survey (p. 72)
Last Solar Eclipse This Century Seen in Africa (p. 80)
Editorial: The Real Issue in the Election

Dec. 7 (Wednesday)
U.S. 'Not Escalating' Conflict in Lebanon (p. 83)
Nakasone Vows Not to Raise Taxes, to Freeze Gov't Expenses (p. 83)
Professor at Medical School Accused of Fabricating Data (p. 84)
Cases of Juvenile Delinquency Reach Postwar High of 191,930 (p. 85)
Bangladesh Ruler Urges Iran, Iraq to Put End to 3-Yr. Conflict (p. 86)
8 U.S. Marines Killed in Beirut Left Their Bunkers Without Authorization (p. 86)
MITI Chief Reports Japanese Economic Activity Picking Up (p. 89)
Editorials: U.S. Offensive in Lebanon
'China Orphans' in Japan

Dec. 8 (Thursday)
Madrid Airplane Crash Kills 104 (p. 97)
Japan, U.S. to Hold GATT Talks in '85 (p. 97)
ICAO Sees Computer Data Error Cause of KAL Crash (p. 97)
Anti-Japanese Sentiments to Increase: NYT Editor (p. 98)
Polish Gov't Won't Allow Walesa to Speak at Solidarity Monument (p. 99)
N. Korea Blasted for Burma Bombing in U.N. General Assembly Committee (p. 100)
Editorial: Success of Europe's Spacelab

Dec. 9 (Friday)
Soviets Suspend START Talks (p. 109)
Fog, Lack of Radar Caused Plane Crash (p. 109)
Lovers' Bank Operator Arrested for Prostitution (p. 110)
Hawaii Observes 42nd Anniv. of Pearl Harbor (p. 111)
Syrians Hand Over Body of Downed U.S. Airman (p. 112)
India Expelled U.S. Diplomat: (p. 112)
Iran Denies OPEC Decision to Freeze Prices, Production (p. 115)
Editorials: Premier Vague on Tax Increase
Mr. Nosaka's Lonely Campaign

Dec. 10 (Saturday)
Israeli Gunboats Hit PLO Waterfront Camp in Tripoli (p. 123)
Gov't BOJ May Give Philippines Stopgap Aid (p. 123)
10 War-Displaced Persons Identify Japanese Relatives (p. 124)
Door-to-Door Sales Law Should Be Revised: Panel (p. 124)
Human Rights Make Argentina Eligible for U.S. Military Aid (p. 125)
Late Sato First Urged World Summit Meeting (p. 126)
New Law Urged to Safeguard Computer Software Developers (p. 128)
Editorials: Roll Back Protectionism
Time for Education Reform
SEASON'S HINTS '83

Dec. 11 (Sunday)
Terrorists Gather In Eastern Lebanon (p. 149)
Premier Unveils 7-Point Plan to Reform Education System (p. 149)
Walesa First Pole to Win Peace Prize (p. 149)
Tokyo Ceremony Marks Human Rights Declaration (p. 150)
U.S. to Consult With U.K. Before Selling Arms to Argentina: Shultz (p. 151)
Old Japanese Canadians Dying Prematurely, Researcher Says (p. 151)
New Cease-Fire Fails to Hold As Shelling Erupts in Beirut (p. 152)
Editorials: Human Rights Awareness
'People-Forgetting' Behavior

Dec. 12 (Monday)
U.S. to Pull Most Troops Out of Grenada This Week (p. 161)
Non-Nuclear Policy Will Apply to U.K. Ship's Visit: Nakasone (p. 161)
Swedish King Presents Nobel Prizes (p. 162)
Cardinal Attacks Marcos' Government (p. 163)
Signature Drive Against Fingerprinting Rule Ends (p. 163)
Gremio of Brazil Wins Toyota Cup (p. 172)
Editorial: U.S. Lurching Toward Confrontation

Dec. 13 (Tuesday)
Series of Blasts Hits U.S., French Embassies in Kuwait: Two Killed (p. 175)
Jordan Urges Soviet Role in Mideast Peace Process (p. 175)
Hitler Papers Still Extant: Sunday Times (p. 177)
Protesters Ring Missile Base After U.K. Debut of 'Day After' (p. 177)
KAL Jet's Acts Resembled Nazi Spying: Soviet Paper (p. 178)
Japan, China Reportedly Reach Uranium Search, Sales Accord (p. 179)
Editorial: The Stalemate in START

Dec. 14 (Wednesday)
Israeli Navy Shells Palestinian Positions (p. 187)
Abducted Schoolboy Rescued; 3 Arrested (p. 187)
Supreme Court Upholds Ruling on Red Army/ JAL Hijack Case (p. 188)
'Day After' Doesn't Faze A-Bomb Victims (p. 188)
Top Court Refuses to Order Surgery on Baby Jane Doe (p. 189)
6 U.S. Computers Seized en Route to East (p. 190)
Editorials: Terrorists Turn to Kuwait
Reality of Nuclear War

Dec. 15 (Thursday)
Soviets Siting More SS 20s in Far East (p. 201)
U.S. Vessels Shell Lebanon Targets (p. 201)
Space Shuttle Columbia Caught on Fire as It Landed: NASA (p. 203)
1st Civilian Cabinet Since Coup Ratified in Turkey (p. 203)
Iran Blocks Offshore Wells to Guard Against Missiles (p. 204)
Japan to Propose Inspections of China's Nuclear Facilities (p. 205)
Editorials: Government's Share of R&D
Food for Thought

Dec. 16 (Friday)
Worst Fighting in Ten Days Engulfs Guerrillas in Tripoli (p. 213)
Beirut Withdrawal Possible: Reagan (p. 213)
3 Pharmaceutical Leaders Admit to Industrial Espionage (p. 214)
Picture of Milky Way's Center May Show Matter Falling Into Black Hole (p. 215)
New Soviet Military Transport Plane Can Carry SS 20s: Jane's (p. 216)
Iraq Bombards 5 Iranian Towns in Response to Kuwait Blasts (p. 217)
Pentagon May Have Pressured Mitsubishi to Sell Subsidiary (p. 221)
Editorial: Mr. Nakasone Silent on Defense

Dec. 17 (Saturday)
Nakasone Will Visit China Next March (p. 229)
Cease-Fire, Airport Agreement Reached: Lebanese Opposition (p. 229)
Hitachi Supercomputer Infringes on IBM Rights (p. 229)
Nosaka Silent on Knife Assault As Niigata Campaign Continues (p. 230)
S. Africa Offers to Withdraw Military Forces From Angola (p. 231)
Lawyer Says Aquino's Alleged Assassin Dead Before Murder (p. 232)
Civilians to Be Invited to Shuttle Flight (p. 232)
Baseball Chief Suspends Drug Abusers for 1 Year (p. 241)
Editorials: A New Minister for Economics?
'Lovers' Banks'

Dec. 18 (Sunday)
Nation Goes to Polls Today to Elect 511-Seat House of Representatives (p. 243)
Greek, Ships Set Sail to Pick Up Arafat, Fighters, Families (p. 243)
Seiko Runners Clock Winning Time (p. 243)
Spike Tires Create Greater Noise (p. 244)
Quadriplegic's Plea to Starve Herself in Hospital Denied (p. 245)
Syria Will Not 'Budge' Under American 'Gunboat Diplomacy' (p. 246)
U.S. Reports Says Grenada Was on Way to Becoming Cuban-Soviet Satellite (p. 246)
Editorials: Delinquency and Sex
'Silver' by Any Other Name

Dec. 19 (Monday)
Liberal-Democrats Headed For Serious Poll Setback (p. 255)
U.S. Ships Reportedly Blast Syrian Positions in Lebanon (p. 255)
Compensation Rising for Arsenic Victims (p. 256)
Fresh Ethnic Violence Against Rwandans Reported in Uganda (p. 257)
U.S. Study on WWII A-Bomb Veterans Challenged as 'Flawed, Unsupportable' (p. 258)
China Liberalizes Policies for Scientists (p. 258)
Austria's Steiner Winner of World Ski Cup Slalom (p. 264)
Editorial: Another Bloody Week in Mideast

Dec. 20 (Tuesday)
LDP Stunned by Election Setback (p. 267)
Search for War Relatives Ends as 60 Leave for China (p. 268)
Sandinistas' Amnesty Offer Received With Skepticism by Nicaraguan Exiles (p. 269)
IRA Admits to London Bombing, Promises It Won't Happen Again (p. 268)
Cattle Rustling Returning to U.S. (p. 271)
Malaysian Airline Crash Injures 27 Passengers (p. 275)
Briton Completes Beijing to Hong Kong Marathon (p. 276)
Editorial: A Vote of Disapproval

Dec. 21 (Wednesday)
Arafat, Fighters Leave Lebanon (p. 279)
U.S. Would Withdraw Marines If Lebanese Talks 'Collapse' (p. 279)
Ex-Medical Assn. Chief Takemi Dies of Cancer (p. 279)
One Out of Five Kids Eats Breakfast Alone (p. 280)
U.S. Study Finds Cancer Genes Work for Normal Cell Growth (p. 281)
NASA Probe to Dip Near Moon to Meet Comet in '85 (p. 281)
Special Mobile Police Squads to Patrol London for Bombs (p. 282)
U.S. Willing to Establish Full Diplomatic Relations With Iraq (p. 283)
Editorials: Three Mile Island Repairs
Premier's Planned Trip to China

Dec. 22 (Thursday)
Economy Picking Up Here, in U.S.: OECD (p. 293)
Toyota Gives OK to FTC Plan For Joint Car-Building Project (p. 293)
Bill's Proposed Steps to Protect Women Workers to Be Reviewed (p. 294)
Thatcher Blasts U.S. Donations To Group Sympathetic to IRA (p. 295)
Italy to Start Phased Troop Withdrawal From Beirut (p. 296)
'Doomsday Clock' Nears Midnight (p. 296)
Editorials: Resume Arms Control Talks
Software Originality

Dec. 23 (Friday)
Elders Urge Premier to Keep LDP United (p. 305)
Hitachi Employees Fined in IBM Case (p. 305)
Miyake Assembly OKs Air Base for U.S. Military (p. 306)
Soviets Said Serious About Permanent Colonies on Moon (p. 306)
Chinese Pressure Leads Dutch Gov't to Nix Export of Four Subs to Taiwan (p. 308)
White House Gets New Barricades (p. 308)
Editorial: LDP After Election Setback

Dec. 24 (Saturday)
LDP Elders Agree to Nakasone's Plan to Restore Political Ethics (p. 321)
Britain Formally Cancels HMS Invincible Port Calls (p. 321)
Totsuka Yacht School Head Hits Investigators' Handling of Case (p. 322)
Loan Sharks, Real Estate Cheats Active (p. 322)
Soviets Agree to Cooperate on Int'l Halley's Comet Watch (p. 323)
Three Iranian Naval Targets Sunk in Gulf War, Iraq Claims (p. 324)
Japanese Fabrics Being Dumped in U.S. Commerce Dept. Rules (p. 325)
Editorials: The Economy: No Complacency
Protecting Software Rights

Dec. 25 (Sunday)
Nakasone Plan to Limit Tanaka's Influence OK'd by LDP Council (p. 335)
Moscow Deal Cuts Fish Catch Quotas (p. 335)
Sakai Assembly Votes to Cut Municipal Workers' Pay Hike (p. 336)
Missing U.S. Bishop Reaches Honduras With Indian Refugees (p. 337)
Lilly Finds 'Increased Incidence' of Cancer in Mice Given Oraflex (p. 337)
Record U.S. Cold Spell Leads to Over 100 Deaths (p. 338)
Jet, Twin-Engine Plane Collide in Anchorage (p. 338)
Editorials: Educational Exchange Accord
Snow Silence

Dec. 26 (Monday)
Renewed Clashes Break Out in Beirut's South Suburbs (p. 347)
U.S. Moves to Withdraw From UNESCO (p. 347)
33% of Pollution Complaints Spurred by Noise, Office Reports (p. 348)
Italian Heiress, Son Freed by Kidnappers Near Rome (p. 349)
Gandhi's Popularity Reaffirmed in Party's By-Election Showing (p. 350)
Pol Pot Still Leads Fight Against Vietnam (p. 350)
Cold Grips Most of U.S., Killing 132 (p. 356)
Editorial: PLO Exodus Benefits Only Syria

Dec. 27 (Tuesday)
Nakasone Appoints NLC's Head to Coalition Cabinet (p. 361)
Jordan, Egypt Sign Agreement to End 5-Yr. Economic Boycott (p. 361)
Miyake Panel to Rescind Flight Training Approval (p. 362)
Polish Catholic Primate Reports Release of 30 Political Prisoners (p. 363)
Mexican Starts 20,000-Km Journey by Wheelchair From Chile to U.N. (p. 363)
Iraqi Missiles Hit Iranian Town; At Least Eight Killed, 91 Injured (p. 364)
Editorials: Afghan War Enters 5th Year
Mr. Ishibashi's Unique View

Dec. 28 (Wednesday)
LDP, NLC Established Coalition For Political Stability: Nakasone (p. 373)
Andropov Supporters Promoted to Politburo, Other Key Posts (p. 373)
Man Contends He's Japanese Seeks Court's Confirmation (p. 374)
450 Die, 200 Left Missing in 2 Guinea Earthquakes (p. 375)
Time Names Reagan, Andropov As 'Men of the Year' for 1983 (p. 375)
Anti-Soviet Protests Occur Worldwide (p. 376)
Editorial: Nakasone Makes New Start

Dec. 29 (Thursday)
Andropov Fails to Attend Supreme Soviet Session (p. 387)
Traffic White Paper Reports Soaring Death Toll of 9,412 (p. 388)
Disneyland Owners Expect Hefty Windfall Land Profit (p. 388)
Westmoreland Releases Libel Suit Documents (p. 389)
Soviets Now Three-for-Three in Space Shuttle Test Flights (p. 390)
Pope Meets Man Who Shot Him (p. 390)
U.S. Cuts Japan's '84 Fishing Quota (p. 392)
Editorials: Quiet Plane Cooperation
Advance of the Doomsday Clock

Dec. 30 (Friday)
Security Inadequate At Beirut Compound (p. 399)
State Spending Freeze Urged by Reform Group (p. 399)
Mitsubishi Corp. Wants to Print U.S. Paper in Japan via Satellite (p. 399)
Ultrarightists May Become More Militant in Future, NPA Warns (p. 400)
Ministry Calls Spy Comic Insensitive (p. 400)
Boston Doctors Find Way to Diagnose Blood Cancer (p. 401)
Europe Basks in Winter Sun As U.S. Cold Spell Kills 370 (p. 402)
U.S. Gives Formal Notice of UNESCO Withdrawal (p. 403)
Editorial: Review of 1983 World Scene

Dec. 31 (Saturday)
U.S. Says UNESCO Withdrawal Decided (p. 413)
Andropov's Absence Leaves Supreme Soviet in Doldrums (p. 413)
Marcos OK's Fresh Voter Registration (p. 413)
Tokyo High Court to Commence Tanaka Appeal Hearings in 1985 (p. 414)
Gromyko Planning to Attend Stockholm Disarmament Talks (p. 415)
Wedding Lights Banned (p. 415)
Iranian Tracker Planes Worry U.S. Ships in Gulf (p. 416)
Jackson Begins Trip to Syria Hoping for Release of U.S. Pilot (p. 416)
Morita Traces Japan's Success to MacArthur (p. 418)
Editorial: Japan: 1983 in Retrospect